

SCENEzine Submission Guidelines

Are you ready to send in some content? Sweet. Follow the formatting guide below. If you have something that we do not cover in the format guide, then send us an email: gulletdigest [at] gmail.com.

Participant-communication

We do not only look for relevant, high-quality content. We also look for participant-communication. Read about it here.

Writing

Long-form journalism, ethnographic writing, creative non-fiction, flash fiction, poetry, etc.! We love a wide variety of written forms and expression.

Sharing your research? Same rules apply.

Does your writing pair with a visual component? See below for visual art requirements.

- Long-form article/essay/research report: max 2000 words
- Ethnographic vignette: max 1200 words
- Creative non-fiction and ethnographic fiction: max 2000 words
- Flash fiction and postcard stories: max 300 words
- Poetry: 3-5 at a time
- FILE TYPE: pdf, docx, rtf

All writing forms except poetry must be single spaced, sized 12 in a readable font.

If you would like to send us a proposal to see if your idea fits, before setting off on your writing journey, then send it through the same submission link, but let us know in the submission form that it is a proposal.

Visual Art

Collages, painting, drawing, comics, photography, diagrams, etc.!

Do you have a video to share? It might not work on the zine platform, BUT we can make it work on the website. If accepted, it will still be a part of the launch. We will find a way! Send it in!

If you have a file SIZE or TYPE that is not working with the submission form, then please send us an email and we will make sure we get it to the editors.

Does your visual art pair with a written component? If it is longer than 100 words, then see the above writing section for limitations. If not, then send it in an accompanying document (pdf, docx, rtf).

Audio

Do you have audio you would like to share? It might not work with the zine platform, BUT we can make it work on the website. If accepted, it will still be a part of the launch, and we will make it work! Send it in! We are way more flexible with this.

- Length: we are super flexible with this, but maybe like under an hour total? That feels reasonable. As in, if you want to send in an album or your mixtape that matches the theme/topic, we are honestly not going to stop you. Just make sure it is under an hour.
